HIDDEN GEMS

Pantai Indah Lagoi Bintan is located on the largest island on the Riau islands Archipelago in Indonesia. The island is blessed with an eclectic mix of different cultures and ethnicities. A trip to the south of Bintan, Tanjung Pinang, is great way to explore the rich history and local culture of Bintan.

1. Trikora Beach

Locally referred to as Pantai Trikora, comprising 4 beaches in one stretch offering crystal clear water, it is a popular weekend retreat for locals. Rustic huts dotted along the coastline are available for rental.

2. Tanjung Pinang

The capital of Riau Islands, Tanjung Pinang is the place to enjoy morning market activities. This is the perfect spot to stock up on dried seafood and handicrafts. Some popular local delights here are Goreng Pisang Keju, Otak Otak and Gong Gong.

3. Penyengat Island

Only a 10-minute motorized boat trip off the jetty of Tanjung Pinang, this tiny island has a rich history, being the final resting place of the kings of the Malay Kingdom. The Grand Mosque of Sultan Riau still stands as one of the island's most popular attractions.

4. Panglong Village, Berakit

Home of the 'orang laut', the original sea gypsies, this is a traditional fishing village where houses are built over the sea. Take a step back in time and peek into the daily activities of Bintan's largest sea gypsy village.

5. Senggarang Village

The former settlement of the early ethnic Chinese migrants who arrived hundreds of years ago. The village boasts a collection of ancient buildings, including a 200-year-old temple that is engulfed by a banyan tree.

6. Tugu Daun Sirih Emas

The seafront park facing the breathtaking view of the historical Penyengat Island becomes the favorite places among the locals of various ages for a wide range of activities to do, such as running, skateboarding or even trying the local delicacies from roadside food stalls.
